

Adventures with Little Eloise

A picture book series for young readers.

November 2024 Newsletter
By Vicki S. Davey, MA, M.Ed.

Hello! It's nearly December and we'd like to give special thanks to Reggie and Pete Adelaars, along with Sue and Jeff Haub and Kathy Genzoli, who stepped up with donations to send Book 5 to the kiddos! Forty copies of "When Bullies Come Knocking" has arrived at the orphanage, and we look forward to seeing the newest photos. To see photos of the kiddos proudly showing their books, please click or copy and paste this link: Kids with our books: Photo Gallery – Vicki Davey Productions, LLC To read what the directors of the orphanage, are saying about the kids and their books on our testimonials page. In December we hope to send the final book in our series – Book 6 - Bob the Burro and the Legend of the Cross. This book teaches about how useful burros have been throughout history, and about the first Christmas and Easter.

Next in our mission is Book 7, which is in development. This book will be for 8-12 year olds, and shares struggles that occur socially as our bodies begin to change and develop. Little Eloise is having a hard time because she is changing and developing black stockings! The neighbors are hard on her calling her names and making fun of her. Little Eloise takes a breath and has a choice to make – fight back, or take the high road and walk away. Her friends help her by standing with her in the face of taunting, and show the mean neighbors kindness in spite of chastisement and hurt feelings. Perhaps these changes will include humans entering into the story. Stay tuned to find out!

This new book will have a new list of donors/sponsors listed in the back (just like the first six books in the series), and those names will always be there. If you'd like to sponsor the publishing of Book 7, please click or copy and paste this link: Adventures with Little Eloise Book 7

We continue to work on our goal to get our books into the hands of children around the world – in their own language -- starting with Rivers of Mercy (ROM) Children's Home in Juarez, Mexico.

Thank you for your ongoing support.
