2025 Newsletter
By Vicki S. Davey, MA, M.Ed.

Hello and Happy New Year, and now – Valentine's Day!!

We hope you had a wonderful holiday season with friends and family and are off to a good start with the new year. We are so thankful for all of you -- your support through encouragement, and for those who were able to donate financially, thank you!

We'd like to give special thanks to Reggie and Pete Adelaars, along with Sue and Jeff Haub and Kathy Genzoli for their donations to send Book 5 to the kiddos in October/November! Forty copies of Book 5, "When Bullies Come Knocking" arrived at the orphanage and photos are posted on our website under OUR BOOKS.

From our email blast in December, several of you responded withing the hour! We were able to purchase and send the final book in our series – Book 6 - Bob the Burro and the Legend of the Cross. This book teaches about how useful burros have been throughout history, and about the first Christmas and Easter.

Several people stepped up with donations to get this final book to the kiddos by Christmas: Karen and Ned Cantrell, Reggie and Pete Adelaars, Joan Russell, Kathy Genzoli, Linette and Kevin Bennett (KB Auto), Garrett Hamlin, Shanon Michelle (my niece), Kim and Dale Cureton, Jane Traverse, Wanda and Sam Kline, Nancy and Keith Reber; and, a new friend who is actually the father of one of the directors of the orphanage, David James Leong. Thank you all so much for stepping up!

Book 6 arrived in time for Christmas, and the pictures will be posted soon. To see photos of the kiddos proudly showing their collection of books, please click or copy and paste this link: Kids with our books: Photo Gallery – Vicki Davey Productions, LLC To read what the directors of the orphanage, are saying about the kids and their books, please visit our testimonials page at: Testimonials – Vicki Davey Productions, LLC

I love how this little guy displays his book collection so proudly!

Next in our line-up is Book 7 in our series, Adventures with Little Eloise, which is in development. This book will be for 8-12 year olds, and shares struggles that occur socially as our bodies begin to change and develop. Little Eloise is having a hard time because she notices she is developing black stockings! The neighbors are hard on her calling her names and making fun of her. What they haven't noticed yet, is that they are changing too!

This new book will continue with our list of donors/sponsors listed in the back of every book, and the names of the newer donors will be added to this. Those names will always be there.

- If you'd like to be part of the publishing process for Book 7, you may donate by clicking this link: Adventures with Little Eloise Book 7 This process includes several steps with experts in each of these areas: Editing, Publishing, Translating, publishing in English and Mexican-Spanish, and promoting.
- To buy our books directly (royalties go into an account for the orphanage), click: Amazon.com: Vicki S. Davey: books, biography, latest update
- Remember that you can also donate directly to Rivers of Mercy through their donations page: Rivers of Mercy Children's Home

We're hoping to partner with someone who will manage our online store. Please let us know if you're a techy and would like to make some money. We have a variety of gifts and collector's items, clothing, hats, bags, jigsaw puzzles, mugs, keychains, and more to display and sell. We just don't have the time to devote to this project. When our website got switched, that changed everything and our store hasn't been up and running for some time. If you are interested in being involved, PLEASE let us know. It can be a good source of income for you, and if we do it right we will be able to send money to the orphanage.

In the wings, we still have our chapter book to republish once I finish with my Editor's notes. I hope to tackle that at some point soon. Lots of changes have occurred in the past year and I'm still adjusting to life today.

We continue to work on our goal to get our books into the hands of children around the world -- in their own language -- starting with Rivers of Mercy (ROM) Children's Home in Juarez, Mexico.

Thank you for your ongoing support. God bless you all!

Vicki and Crew
