Greetings and Salutations!

We've been very busy building and updating our website. We still have a lot of work to do, but would really appreciate your feedback, either within the pages in the comment boxes, or as an email.

Please visit our website and scroll through our pages at www.vickidavey.com

Our goal is to get our books into the hands of children around the world – in their own language. We are currently meeting that goal with Rivers of Mercy (ROM) Children's Home in Juarez, Mexico.

The funds for translating, editing, and publishing our books this past summer and fall came from the estate of my late mother, Patti Brunner. She was proud of our books and would be glad to know that her money was put to good use for this worthy cause. To purchase books for yourselves, please visit Amazon at https://www.amazon.com/author/vicki_s_davey

Thank you for your continuing support.

February 2024, 40 copies of Book 1, Adventures with Little Eloise, Making Friends, were sent to the orphanage, one for each child from these funds. I am so very thankful.

Our fundraising for April 2024 was fruitful and we sent 40 copies of Book 2, Adventures with Little Eloise, Little Jack Bones to the kiddos. Contributors to this book were Garrett Hamlin, Reggie Adelaars, Julia Moore, Christie Lawrence, and Kathy Genzoli. Thank you so much for your donations! We are now fundraising for the acquisition of Book 3, Adventures with Little Eloise, Into the Woods (in Spanish).

This book is about sportsmanship and a soccer match. With your help we will send 40 copies to the kiddos at the orphanage in June 2024. Since I can order books as author copies at production price, getting a book for each kiddo (40 of them) comes to about $270.
